1.0 Privacy Charter

1.1 Scope

This privacy policy applies to:

1. Asasa Academy employees, including contractors, students, and volunteers providing services on behalf of the Asasa Academy;
2. Any personal Information that identifies an individual, in whatever form or medium (paper, digital, audio-visual, graphic) created or received in the course of carrying out the Asasa Academy 's mandated functions and activities, and;
3. All facilities and equipment required to collect, manipulate, transport, transmit, or keep Asasa Academy information.

1.2 Legislative Requirements

The Personal Information Protection Act (PIPA) ("the Act") protects the personal information of the public and employees of private sector organizations operating in Alberta. It governs the collection, use and disclosure of personal information by organizations in a manner that recognizes and balances the right of an individual to have his or her personal information protected, and the need of an organization to collect, use or disclose personal information for purposes that are reasonable.

Asasa Academy is bound by the requirements of this Act and collects, uses or discloses personal information in accordance with its provisions.

1.3 Privacy Principles

Asasa Academy is committed to protecting the privacy of individual employees, students and guardians. To that end, Asasa Academy has implemented a privacy program to meet the following privacy goals:

Accountability

Asasa Academy is responsible for protecting the confidentiality of personal information in its custody or under its control in compliance with the applicable federal or provincial legislation.

Asasa Academy has identified and designated a Privacy Officer to be responsible for implementing the privacy program and ensuring compliance with legislation.

Openness

Asasa Academy develops and follows privacy and security policies and practices that are compliant with legislation. Such policies and practices are publicly available.

Collection and Consent

Asasa Academy collects personal information only for reasonable business purposes and with the consent of the individual or authorized representative, except where otherwise authorized by legislation.

Identifying Purposes

Asasa Academy identifies the purposes for which personal information is collected.

Limited Use, Disclosure and Retention

Asasa Academy uses, discloses and retains personal information for purposes consistent with the purpose for which it was collected. Use and disclosure for other purposes is by consent of the individual or as authorized by legislation.

Accuracy

Asasa Academy makes all reasonable efforts to ensure that personal information collected, used or disclosed by or on behalf of Asasa Academy is accurate and complete.

Safeguards

Asasa Academy protects personal information in its custody or control by deploying security measures and practices to prevent unauthorized access, collection, use, disclosure, copying, modification, disposal or destruction.

Right of Access

Individuals have a right to access information about themselves at Asasa Academy, subject only to limited and specific exceptions. Individuals who believe there is an error or omission in their personal information have a right to request correction or amendment of the information.

Compliance Challenges

Individuals are encouraged to bring any concerns or issues regarding privacy at Asasa Academy to the Privacy Officer for discussion and response. Individuals may appeal to the Information and Privacy Commissioner of Alberta to review or investigate Asasa Academy right of access or correction responses, or any policies or practices that they feel are not in compliance with legislative requirements.

For further details about the purposes for the collection, use or disclosure of personal information, please refer to Appendix 1.

2. Asasa Academy collects personal information with the consent of the individual using the Consent Form (Appendix 3) and in accordance with consent standards (see Section 5.0).
3. The Asasa Academy collects personal information about individuals directly from the student, parents or other authorized representative.
4. Personal information can be collected without the consent of the individual for the following purposes:
 - it is in the interests of the individual and consent cannot be obtained in a time period required for the purpose.
 - to deal with an emergency that threatens the life, health or security of an individual;
 - to support legal counsel in order to represent Asasa Academy;
 - to collect a debt owed by the individual to Asasa Academy;
 - to comply with a subpoena or warrant;
 - to government agencies, or investigative bodies with the authority to administer or enforce a law of Canada, or to investigate a threat to national defense, security, or international affairs.
 - for archival or research purposes that cannot be achieved without using identifiable information;
 - if the collection is authorized by statute or regulation (e.g., School Act);
 - to contact next of kin or friend of an individual who is deceased, ill, or injured;
 - to determine the individual's suitability to receive an honor, award or similar benefit, including an honorary degree, scholarship or bursary;

3.2 Use and Disclosure of Personal Information

1. Asasa Academy uses and discloses personal information only for the purposes consistent with those identified at the time of collection or according to purposes listed in section 3.1. All uses and disclosures for other purposes require the consent of the individual in accordance with consent standards (see Section 5.0).
2. Where explicit consent is required, Asasa Academy obtains the consent of the student or authorized representative using the consent form (Appendix 3) before disclosing any information.
3. School or College Name] will ensure that the student or authorized representative is notified of any new purpose for which personal information will be used or disclosed.

3.3 Notification Requirements

1. In all cases, Asasa Academy ensures that the student or authorized representative is properly notified of the purposes for collecting, using or disclosing their personal information before the information transaction takes place.
2. Asasa Academy ensures individuals are notified of any surveillance devices in use on the premises for security purposes.
3. Asasa Academy notifies individuals through the use of appropriate forms, posters, verbal statements, brochures, or other forms of communication (Appendix 6).

4.0 Collection, Use and Disclosure of Personal Employee Information

4.1 Collection of Personal Employee Information

1. The least amount of information is collected, with the highest degree of anonymity, to meet the business purpose.
2. Personal employee information collected must be limited to that required to support the work or relationship the employee has with Asasa Academy. The purposes for collection of personal employee information may include:
 - Enabling professional development
 - Ensuring employee health and safety
 - Managing School or College Finances
 - Processing of salary payments
 - Obtaining contract services
 - Human resources administration
 - Evaluation of staff / performance appraisals
 - Employee recruitment, classification and compensation
 - Employee evaluation
 - Occupational health and employee benefits administration

For specific information about the purposes for the collection, use or disclosure of personal employee information, please refer to Appendix 2 which identifies the purposes of collection in further detail.

3. Consent is not required when personal information is collected for the purposes of recruiting potential employees, or is about an existing employee. For all other purposes, the Asasa Academy will obtain the consent of the individual using the Consent Form to authorize the collection of personal employee information (Appendix 3) and in accordance with consent standards (see Section 5.0).

4.2 Use and Disclosure of Personal Employee Information

1. Asasa Academy uses and discloses personal employee information of existing or past employees only for the purposes of recruiting potential employees or for reasonable employee management purposes identified in 4.1.
2. For all other purposes, the Asasa Academy will obtain the consent of the individual using the Consent Form to authorize the use and disclosure of personal employee information (Appendix 3) and in accordance with consent standards (see Section 5.0).

4.3 Notification Requirements

1. Whether or not consent is required, all potential, existing, and past employees will be notified of the purposes for which their personal employee information is collected, used, and disclosed before the information transaction takes place.
2. Asasa Academy notifies individuals through the use of appropriate forms, posters, verbal statements, brochures, or other forms of communication (Appendix 6).

5.0 Consent Standards for Personal Information

1. An individual consents when they make a voluntary and informed agreement with Asasa Academy for collecting, using and disclosing their personal information for a specific purpose.
2. Asasa Academy will obtain the consent before collecting the information. If additional consent is required for use and disclosure Asasa Academy will obtain consent before the use or disclosure occurs.
3. There are three options for determining the appropriate consent forms or process:

Explicit consent:

Individual is properly informed and explicitly gives permission, either in writing or orally, before action taken. The consent form included as Appendices 3 and 4 includes the elements required to ensure that explicit consent is informed and complete.

Implied consent:

Permission is implied based on clear actions and circumstances under which the information was provided.

Opt-out consent

An individual is given reasonable opportunity to exercise consent; if no response is given, consent is assumed.

4. Explicit consent is required for all personal information, unless specifically authorized in policy. Opt-out consent is only used when dealing with personal information limited to name and location or contact information.
5. Only the individual or authorized representative can provide consent.
6. Asasa Academy cannot refuse a service to an individual if they refuse to give their consent for the collection of personal information beyond what is reasonably required to provide the service.
7. An individual may refuse to give their consent for personal information to be collected in relation to a specific purpose Asasa Academy has identified. In the event that an individual places reasonable conditions on their consent, the Asasa Academy must consider whether there is another way the purpose may be achieved without collecting the information.
8. An individual may revoke consent at any time.

6.0 Information Handling and Security

The information security provisions of the Personal Information Protection Act (“the Act”) require the Asasa Academy to protect personal information in its custody or control by making reasonable security arrangements to protect against unauthorized access, collection, use, disclosure or destruction. This policy outlines administrative, technical and physical safeguards to protect confidential personal information.

6.1 Administrative Safeguards

1. The Asasa Academy ensures those policies and procedures to facilitate the safeguarding of confidential information in its custody or control are developed and maintained.
2. The need for confidentiality and security of personal information is addressed as part of the conditions of employment for Asasa Academy employees, beginning with the recruitment stage, and included as part of job descriptions and contracts. All staff must be aware of, and appropriately trained with regard to, policies and procedures for safeguarding information.
3. All Asasa Academy employees, volunteers, and contracted personnel that collect, use, disclose or have access to confidential information as part of the performance of their duties for Asasa Academy sign a Confidentiality Agreement.
4. Only the least amount of information necessary for the intended purpose is used or disclosed, and only to employees with a need to know. If the intended purpose can be accomplished without use or disclosure of identifying information, then the information will be made anonymous.
5. Before implementing proposed new administrative practices or information systems that will change or significantly affect the collection, use and disclosure of personal information, the Asasa Academy may complete a Privacy Impact Assessment (PIA). Asasa Academy may submit the PIA to the Office of the Information and Privacy Commissioner of Alberta for review and advice. The PIA will describe how the new initiative will affect privacy, and what measures Asasa Academy will put in place to mitigate risks to privacy.
6. Asasa Academy employees and persons acting on behalf of the Asasa Academy report all violations and breaches of information security as soon as possible to the Asasa Academy’s Privacy Officer. This enables the Privacy Officer to take corrective action to resolve the immediate problem and minimize the risk of future occurrence.

6.2 Physical Safeguards

1. All Asasa Academy records, both on-site and off-site, are held and stored in an organized, safe and secure manner in accordance with information security standards.
2. Appropriate fire detection and extinguishing devices are located in areas where personal information is stored.
3. Asasa Academy’s records are not accessible by unauthorized persons. In areas where unauthorized persons are present, measures will be taken to ensure that files are not left unattended or accessible; and unattended computers or monitors are secured and logged off.
4. Locked cabinets or rooms within the Asasa Academy secure all servers and equipment storing personal information when not under direct supervision by Asasa Academy staff.

Asasa Academy Privacy Policy
Information Handling and Security

5. Asasa Academy records or equipment holding records (e.g. laptop computers) may not be left unattended in a vehicle, even if the vehicle is locked.
6. Distribution of keys or pass codes will be returned or changed as soon as practicable after an individual's employment or association with the Asasa Academy has ended.
7. Building alarm codes that may be assigned to Asasa Academy employees will be invalidated and changed as soon as possible upon the termination of a staff member.
8. Confidential information will be treated with sensitivity. Staff will take care when sharing information if conversations can be overheard or intercepted by unauthorized individuals.
9. Confidential, restricted, or sensitive information that is transmitted by mail or courier will be sealed, marked as confidential, and directed to the attention of the authorized recipient.
10. Asasa Academy employees will verify the identity and credentials of courier services used for the transportation of personal information.
11. Fax machines and printers that may be used to send or receive confidential information are located in a secure area. Whenever possible staff will use preprogrammed numbers to send fax transmissions, and will review the numbers every 6 months to ensure they are still accurate. All fax transmissions will be sent with a cover sheet that indicates the information being sent is confidential (Appendix 5). Reasonable steps are taken to confirm that confidential information transmitted via fax is sent to a recipient with a secure fax machine.
12. Information that is not confidential or sensitive in nature will be recycled. Confidential or sensitive information is destroyed by shredding. Destruction will be documented by listing the records and / or files to be destroyed, the date of destruction, and a staff member's signature to confirm that the destruction occurred.
13. All information will be deleted using secure data wiping techniques prior to disposal of electronic data storage devices (e.g. surplus computers, internal and external hard drives, diskettes, tapes, CD-ROMS, etc.), or the device(s) will be destroyed.
14. Student records, in any format (hard copy or electronic), will be retained in compliance with the School Act. The retention period for all other personal information is set according to the business requirements of Asasa Academy. Personal information that was used to make decision about an individual will be kept for at least one year after the decision has been made.

6.3 Technical Safeguards

1. Firewalls, intrusion detection software, or other technical means to protect internal Asasa Academy networks carrying identifiable personal information is in place to prevent unauthorized use and malicious software.
2. Access to data and application systems to personal information is limited by each Asasa Academy's employee functional role and need to know.
3. Employees of Asasa Academy access and use information systems under their assigned User ID. The use of another person's assigned User ID is prohibited.
4. Access to Asasa Academy information systems is controlled and password protected. Passwords are kept confidential at all times and will not be written down, posted publicly, or shared with other staff. Passwords will be changed on a regular schedule. If a computer is left unattended, it will be protected against unauthorized access by manual or automated logout requiring authentication to re-enter the system.

Asasa Academy Privacy Policy
Information Handling and Security

5. Personal information is not permitted to be sent by e-mail or transmitted over the internet or external networks without the use of appropriate security safeguards, such as encryption and authentication. E-mail messages must also contain a confidentiality notification (see Appendix 6).
6. To detect unauthorized access and prevent modification or misuse of user data in applications, systems may be monitored to ensure conformity to access policies and standards. Appropriate security controls, such as event logs, will be implemented and reviewed as required.
7. Computer systems that hold critical or sensitive information will be backed up on a daily basis. Backed up information is stored in a secure environment off-site. Information that is intended for long-term storage on electronic media (e.g. tape, DVD, disk) will be reviewed on an annual basis to ensure the data is retrievable, and to migrate the data to another storage medium if necessary.

7.0 Right of Access and Correction

Subject to limited and specific exceptions, individuals have a right of access to information about themselves that is in the custody or control of the Asasa Academy. Further, individuals have a right to request correction or amendment of information about themselves. This policy is intended to define a process for facilitating requests for access to personal information, or to correct or amend personal information.

7.1 Individual Requests for Access to Their Own Information

1. Requests from individuals to access basic personal information about themselves (e.g., contact information, dates and times) are handled as a routine release of information.
2. Formal requests for access to information that may involve review and severing must be in writing to the Asasa Academy Privacy Officer, or designate. An individual may request access to another person's information only if they have signed consent of the person or if they can prove they are the person's legal representatives.
3. Individuals making routine or formal requests may be required to provide sufficient information to verify their identity and authorize access to the information. Any such information provided shall be used for these purposes only.
4. Asasa Academy responds to formal requests for access to personal information within forty-five (45) calendar days of receipt of the request.
5. Asasa Academy does not charge the individuals for access to their own personal information. However, reasonable fees may be charged for reproduction, transcription, or transmission of information, so long as the individual is notified before these costs are incurred. A fee for reasonable costs incurred may be charged when responding to more complex requests. The individual will be informed of the fee in advance.
6. Requested information will be provided in a form that is generally understandable. Asasa Academy will endeavor to explain the meaning of the content, codes and abbreviations included in the individual's record to the extent that it is reasonably practical.
7. In providing an account of third parties to whom it has disclosed personal information about an individual, Asasa Academy will be as specific as possible. When it is not possible to provide a list of the organizations to which it has actually disclosed information about an individual, Asasa Academy will provide a list of organizations to which it is likely to have disclosed information.
8. Individuals are permitted to view either the original record, or to request a copy of the record, subject to exceptions under the Act. To preserve the integrity of the record and ensure that documents are not removed from Asasa Academy, an individual wishing to view an original record will do so under the supervision of designated Asasa Academy personnel.

7.2 Exceptions to Right of Access

1. In certain situations, Asasa Academy may not be able to provide access to all the personal information it holds about an individual. Asasa Academy must refuse to provide access to information:
 - when it is about a third party or reveals the identity of a third party providing an opinion about an individual, unless the third party consents to the access;
 - if access could reasonably be expected to threaten the life or security of another individual
2. Additionally, Asasa Academy may refuse to provide access to information:
 - that is protected by solicitor-client privilege;
 - that would reveal confidential commercial information;
 - that was collected without the individual's knowledge or consent as part of an investigation of a breach of agreement or contravention of law;
 - that was generated in the course of a formal arbitration or mediation process;
 - that is about disclosures of information to comply with a warrant or subpoena;
 - the disclosure might reasonably result in similar information no longer being provided.
3. In the event Asasa Academy refuses to provide access to information, the excepted information are appropriately severed from the record before providing it to the individual.
4. Asasa Academy informs the individual in writing of the refusal or acceptance of the request, the reason(s) for the refusal, and any recourse the individual may have to challenge Asasa Academy's decision.

7.3 Individual Requests to Correct or Amend Personal Information

1. Requests from individuals to correct / amend information about themselves (e.g. change of name or address) are handled as a routine correction of information.
2. Formal requests to correct or amend information subject to review must be in writing to the Asasa Academy Privacy Officer, or designate. An individual may request the correction of another person's information only if they have that person's signed consent or they can prove they are the person's legal representative.
3. All formal requests must be accompanied by appropriate documentation to support their request before Asasa Academy will amend the information as required and as appropriate. Generally, Asasa Academy will not amend professional opinions that are made by staff that have the competency to make them. If amendments are made, the original information must not be deleted but retained and marked as incorrect by crossing out, for example. The amended information will be transmitted to third parties, as appropriate.
4. Asasa Academy responds to formal requests for correction of personal information within forty-five (45) calendar days of receipt of the request.
5. Asasa Academy informs the individual in writing of the refusal or acceptance of the request, the reason(s) for the refusal, and any recourse the individual may have to challenge Asasa Academy's decision.
6. If the individual is not satisfied with the results of his/her request, Asasa Academy internally documents the issue in the relevant record(s) and provides a response. The existence of the unresolved challenge will be transmitted to third parties, as appropriate.

7.4 Individual Challenges to Request Responses

Individuals are encouraged to bring any concerns or issues concerning responses to requests and compliance with this policy to the Privacy Officer for discussion and mediation. Individuals may also challenge responses in writing to the Information and Privacy Commissioner of Alberta.

8.0 Roles and Responsibilities

Under the Personal Information Protection Act (PIPA), Asasa Academy is required to identify a contact person who is responsible for ensuring compliance with applicable privacy legislation. This policy is intended to define accountabilities for privacy compliance within the Asasa Academy.

8.1 Privacy Officer Responsibilities

[Designate Name] is designated to act as Privacy Officer for the Asasa Academy.

The responsibilities of the Privacy Officer include:

1. identifying privacy compliance issues for the Asasa Academy ;
2. ensuring that privacy and security policies and procedures are developed and maintained as necessary;
3. ensuring that Asasa Academy employees, volunteers and contracted personnel are aware of their duties, roles, and responsibilities under applicable privacy legislation;
4. in consultation with Asasa Academy employees as necessary, providing advice on, and interpretation of, applicable privacy legislation, including release / non-release of information;
5. responding to requests for access to information, or to correct or amend personal information, and facilitating the request process as necessary
6. ensuring the overall security and protection of personal information in the custody or control of the Asasa Academy ;
7. representing the Asasa Academy in dealings with third parties, the provincial government, and the Commissioner, as necessary.

9.5 Appendix 5: Security of Facsimile and Electronic mail Transmissions

9.5.1 All Transmissions

1. Limit transmission to circumstances where it is immediately necessary for time-sensitive or functional reasons and to the least amount of information possible.
2. All transmissions must be accompanied by the following statement:
This information is intended for the identified recipient only and may contain information that is privileged or confidential under law. If you are not the intended recipient, you are hereby notified that any dissemination or communication of this information is strictly prohibited. If you have received this communication in error, please notify the sender immediately at the contact address or number indicated.
3. Asasa Academy users will only send or forward very large documents or attachments when absolutely necessary.
4. Asasa Academy will protect of spooled data awaiting output to a level consistent with its sensitivity. Only those authorized should see the data spooled.

9.5.2 Electronic mail

1. Do not transmit by e-mail over a service other than the regional e-mail service (e.g., hotmail)
2. Remove all personal identifiers from the message if possible.
3. Do not transmit identifiable personal information by e-mail to an external or public zone unless the information is secured by encryption.
4. Do not include identifiers or personal information in the subject header of the mail.
5. Verify all addresses as correct before sending messages.
6. Develop, update and use e-mail addresses from address book.
7. Request notification of receipt.
8. Asasa Academy users will not open e-mail message attachments from suspicious or doubtful sources. If in doubt, contact the sender and verify the content of the message.

9.5.3 Facsimile transmissions

1. The recipient's machine must be in a secure area. Otherwise, the recipient should stand by to receive and confirm transmission of the information. Where information is routinely sent by batched fax transmission, the responsibility to confirm secure receipt of the information lies with the sender.
2. An approved Asasa Academy Fax Transmission Cover Sheet must be completed and accompany the information transmitted.
3. To ensure accuracy in dialing, confirm the number being dialed by visual check on the fax machine display. For frequently dialed numbers, use the automatic dialing feature to minimize incorrect dialing.
4. For automatic faxing by computer, use a fax table for automatic dialing of numbers.
5. Where possible, use available security features on the fax machine, i.e. confidential mailboxes to ensure the confidentiality of information.
6. Print out and check the fax machine logs after transmission to verify that documents were received at the correct number.
7. If it is determined that the transmission was received by a wrong number:
 - contact the recipient and ask them to return or destroy the documents,
 - retain copies of all information sent, and
 - report the incident as an information security breach to the Asasa Academy's Privacy Officer.

9.5.4 Inspections of E-mail Messages

1. Asasa Academy may view, monitor or inspect any messages sent or received using the Asasa Academy system in order to:
 - investigate information security incidents
 - support an urgent, time-sensitive action
 - maintain Asasa Academy information systems
 - comply with a court order or statutory requirement
2. Where access to e-mail is deemed necessary, Asasa Academy will attempt to inform the affected users prior to any inspection disclosure of e-mail records, except when such notification would be detrimental to an investigation of possible violation of the Act or Asasa Academy policy.

9.5.5 Filing and Retention of E-mail messages

1. E-mail messages are considered records and therefore subject to the standards for classification and retention in the School Act. Messages that must be retained as master records should be either:
 - printed out and filed in the appropriate paper file
 - transferred from the e-mail directory to a secure and maintained electronic file directory
